COMMERCIAL

EXPERIENCE

Brent Wilson joined TOK Commercial as a brokerage services specialist in 2016. Brent is passionate about the art and science of commercial real estate and is committed to executing his clients' objectives with a high level of integrity and professionalism. He is also active in the world of investment sales, having brokered many notable single-tenant and multi-tenant transactions in the region. Brent is licensed to do business in Idaho, Montana and Wyoming.

Brent started his career in 1996 as a land planner and entitlements coordinator with a national development consulting firm. Eight years later, he applied his extensive background in GIS mapping, market analytics and zoning/building codes to launch a career in commercial real estate brokerage. Since that time, he has coordinated hundreds of transactions with some of the nation's most significant landlords and retailers.

Brent graduated from the University of Florida with a master's degree in land planning.
