COMMERCIAL

EXPERIENCE:

David Dowers brings more than 40 years of experience across all facets of commercial real estate, including construction management, leasing, acquisitions and dispositions, and property management. As a tenant and buyer representative, Dave delivers strategic guidance that aligns client objectives with solutions focused on long-term value. With over 25 years in commercial construction, he has deep expertise in the management of design, construction, and renovation activities across a wide range of property types. This construction experience provides added value to clients when evaluating the feasibility of adapting properties and space for various potential uses.

Dave assists his brokerage clients with the following:

- Property acquisitions & dispositions
- Lease negotiations and renewals
- Buyer & tenant representation
- Market research & availability surveys
- Broker Price Opinions
- Property tours

His background includes serving as Director of Operations for CLW Real Estate Services, Southeast Region Director of Construction for Lincoln Property Company, and founding Dowers Commercial in the early 2000s.
