EXPERIENCE

Kris Jackson joined TOK Commercial as a Broker in 2025, working primarily out of the Coeur d'Alene office and serving clients throughout the Inland Northwest. He brings a relationship-driven approach, a strong work ethic shaped by team athletics, and a commitment to delivering thoughtful, client-focused solutions.

Kris's professional background includes more than a decade in the medical device industry with DePuy Orthopedics, where he developed a deep appreciation for precision, accountability, and results-oriented service. That experience translates seamlessly into commercial real estate, where attention to detail, clear communication, and strategic thinking are essential to successful outcomes.

Known for his approachable style and steady guidance, Kris focuses on understanding each client's goals and navigating transactions with care and transparency from start to finish. He values long-term relationships and takes pride in helping clients make informed decisions that support both immediate needs and future growth. At TOK, he is dedicated to providing dependable service and creating value for clients across the region.

Kris assists clients with the following:

- Property acquisitions & dispositions
- Seller and landlord representation
- Buyer and tenant representation
- Property and site selection tours
- Lease negotiations & renewals
- Market research & competition analysis

EDUCATION

Kris holds a bachelor's degree from Weber State University, where he was a member of the football team.

PERSONAL

Originally from the small town of Delta, Utah, Kris met his wife, Heidi, while attending Weber State University, where he was a member of the football team. After spending nearly 15 years in Salt Lake City, they made the move to Coeur d'Alene, where they are proud to call home. Kris and Heidi have twin boys who are seniors at Gonzaga Prep High School and keep them busy as they wrap up their final year.
